

Dermatopathology:

Ipsum Diagnostics is a full service dermatopathology laboratory committed to superior patient care. We offer a comprehensive selection of specialty tests with fast turn-around-time and multi-specialty physicians available for case consultations. Diagnoses are made with confidence by board certified dermatopathologists. For difficult cases, we offer consultations with our team of medical specialist. Numerous reports suggest a team approach for assessment improves outcomes and prevents unnecessary delays that impact treatment decisions.

All-in-One Partner

Ipsum has proprietary technology that optimizes quality and improves efficiency based on your unique practice needs.

We provide a customized experience from specimen collection through diagnosis. Our process simplifies and consolidates your workflow. Our specialized services include:

- Specimen types including nails, skin and bone
- Frozen Sections
- IHC Stains
- ISH Stains
- Direct and Indirect IF
- Mycology and Bacteriology using histology and molecular for detection and species identification
- Margins evaluated upon request
- STAT cases are prioritized
- Our team is available and responsive

Practical Logistics:

1. Samples are shipped overnight or transported by a courier
2. Ipsum's bar code tracking system ensure your important samples are monitored and received
3. Robust reporting options; EMR integration, Mobile App, Secure Web Portal, Fax or mail